INVITATION

We have the pleasure to invite you to the International Conference organized by the Orthodox Theology Faculty of “Lucian Blaga” University of Sibiu, Romania (EU), in the memory of Father Professor Ion Bria, with the theme:

“The Relevance of the Work of Father Professor Ion Bria for the Present Church and Social Life. New Directions in Researching the Doctrine, Mission and Unity of the Church” which will be held between 14-16 May 2009.

Father Ion Bria was professor at the Orthodox Faculty in Bucharest, he served the World Council of Churches, leading several departments (1973-1994) and then he was invited and he accepted to be professor at the Theological Faculty “Andrei Saguna” in Sibiu, Romania, Department of Dogmatic and Ecumenical Theology (1995-1999). He wrote in the fields of Doctrine, Mission, Ecumenism and Theological Hermeneutics, his writings being unique, both in content and in style. The originality of his work and his theological thinking and method is unquestionable. The Conference aims to explore all these areas and to find ways to value his scientific contribution.

We would be happy to receive your confirmation of attending the Conference at your earliest convenience, together with the title and a short abstract of the paper you intend to present. The full content of the paper is needed by 20 th April, in order to translate it and then publish in a volume.
